Guide for Visitors to Our Library

User of Medical Library

This library is available for researchers who want to refer to our materials. Please do not use our library for your own private study.

Note to visitors

During the examination times (the latter half of July and from late January to the middle of February), our library is extraordinarily crowded. During those times, students have priority to use our library over visitors. Your use of our library may be limited. Please keep this in mind.

From December to February, question banks on the third floor for the national exam cannot be used. During that time, please use the old edition in the electric bookshelves on the same floor.
